GET CONNECTED WITH THE YOUNG LEADERS' SOCIETY

Affinity group members inspire, empower and embolden each other to become agents of change in our community through philanthropy, advocacy, and volunteerism. Become a member and help change the story of our community.

Young Leaders' Society is for young professionals who are passionate about community involvement. We find meaningful ways to forge strong relationships, take action, leave a mark and make an impact—all in the spirit of Living United. Young Leaders' Society offers opportunities to:

- Participate in a non-profit leadership development program offered exclusively to YLS members that grooms the next generation of leaders for board service
- Engage in volunteer events that make a difference
- Join purposeful, topical conversations and workshops with executives and leaders

For more information or to become a member of the Young Leaders' Society, email YLS@uwsuncoast.org.

UNITED WAY
UNITED®

WOMEN UNITED members work together to fight for the education and financial stability of every person in our community by providing leadership through volunteerism, public policy work, and advocacy. It is about being part of something powerful: a community of smart and successful women working together to achieve common goals for the betterment of all. Women United offers opportunities to:

- Engage in volunteer events that make a difference
- Participate in Power Lunches that offer purposeful, topical conversations with other female executives and thought leaders
- Serve as an ambassador for United Way and Women United by championing the WU mission internally and in the community
- Plan events that help advocate for hardworking families in our community who are in need
- Be a part of a national network of 50,000 women from more than 120 local communities
