Women United invites you to join us for our virtual leadership development event focused on embracing a growth mindset in uncertain times. The time is now!

Facilitated by: Erin Richey Carlson, Principal | ERC Strategies

Erin currently serves as the Principal Consultant of ERC Strategies – a talent consulting and career development firm dedicated to providing strategic solutions across all aspects of hiring, training and retaining talent. Her specialties include helping companies connect to top talent, supporting professionals with career development and job search consulting, and coaching executives to enhance their leadership skillset.

This program was organized by Thais Rodriguez-Caez, Women United Annual Conference Committee Chair. To learn more about Women United or other United Way Suncoast leadership opportunities, please visit unitedwaysuncoast.org or call 813-274-0929.
